BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS—

Caesar J. Balzotti and Balzotti Global Group are pleased to announce the revamping of Caesar's Roofing, Inc., a national roofing and construction firm that encompasses over 35 years of experience, excellence, and success in carrying out large commercial, industrial, state, and federal contracts.

Balzotti, who has remained President of the Company since its incorporation in 1980, has tried many times over the years to retire; however, each wholehearted attempt proved to be as unsuccessful as he is restless.

At its height, the Company boasted over 500 employees operating in over nine states. It completed many sizable jobs over the years, including, the Suffolk County Court House, John Hancock Berkeley Building, Massachusetts Port Authority, Mystic Pier in Charlestown, the General Motors Plant in Framingham, MA, the Galleria Mall in White Plains, NY, and the roofing and rehabilitation of many structures in Southern Florida in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew.

At the turn of the 21st century, Balzotti limited the Company's operations mainly to his own roofing and development projects. However, and now more than ever, Balzotti recognizes the need for a major roofing contractor in the industry. With his experience of running several large jobs at once, Balzotti feels that Caesar's Roofing can fill the void that presently subsists in the market.

Caesar's Roofing has already been contracted to carry out several large roofing and rehabilitation contracts in the New England area.
